U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.

COMPLAINT

JURISDICTION

The United States District Court has jurisdiction over this matter on the basis of diversity of citizenship pursuant to 28 U.S.C., Sections 1332 and 1441 et seq., as the parties are citizens of different states.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1. The Plaintiff, MATTHEW CASCIO, is a resident of Monroe County, Indiana.
2. Defendant, THE ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON, A CORPORATION SOLE ("ARCHDIOCESE"), is a corporation duly organized under c. 506 of the Acts of 1897 of the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with a usual place of business at 66 Brooks Drive, in the City of Braintree, County of Norfolk, State of Massachusetts.
3. Defendant, Bernard J. Lane ("LANE") is an individual residing in Barnstead, New Hampshire.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

4. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant ARCHDIOCESE controlled and directed the hiring, training, supervision and retention of clergy and lay personnel in the Archdiocese of Boston.
5. At all times relevant to this action, defendant LANE was a duly ordained Roman Catholic Priest who acted under the control and direction of defendant ARCHDIOCESE.
6. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant LANE, was a lay employee under the supervision and control of defendant ARCHDIOCESE.
7. Plaintiff CASCIO was sexually abused by Defendant LANE at Adolescent Counseling in Development House ("ACID HOUSE") in Malden, Massachusetts, during the year 1970. Although the abuse occurred in 1970, the Plaintiff repressed the memory of the acts of sexual abuse and only recently became aware of and recalled the various acts of sexual abuse.
8. Defendants, by their respective acts, both negligent and intentional, have inflicted severe emotional distress upon the Plaintiff.
9. Until recently, the Plaintiff has been unable to remember and/or to understand the damage which the Defendants have inflicted upon him. As a result of the acts of the Defendants, Plaintiff has been required to undergo psychological treatment and therapy, and will continue to require this treatment and therapy in the future.
10. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant Lane and other deceased priests and lay employees who are unnamed in this action, committed numerous sexual assaults on members of the parishes in the Archdiocese, under their care and supervision, and were open and notorious pedophiles.

11. Defendant ARCHDIOCESE knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, of the prior and on-going sexual assaults by Defendant Lane.
12. Defendant ARCHDIOCESE knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known that the Defendant Lane was not a fit person to be placed in charge of the supervision of young males.
13. Defendant ARCHDIOCESE knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that the Defendant Lane was not a fit person to be retained in a position in which he would have access to young males.
14. Defendant ARCHDIOCESE knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have discovered that the Defendant Lane was engaged in illegal and inappropriate sexual conduct with young males under his supervision.
15. Defendant ARCHDIOCESE failed to train and supervise the Defendant Lane to perform his duties as supervisor of young males properly.
16. Defendant ARCHDIOCESE knew, at various times prior to and during the time that Defendant Lane abused the Plaintiff that aforesaid acts of sexual abuse were occurring, but conspired to keep this from becoming public knowledge, which conspiracy made it possible for the Defendant Lane to commit, and to continue commit, sexual abuses and assaults upon the Plaintiff and others.

As a result of the assaults upon him by Defendant Lane and the negligence of the Defendant ARCHDIOCESE, the Plaintiff has been seriously and permanently injured, and continues to suffer at present from psychological disease, which impairs and affects all aspects of his life.

34. Defendant ARCHDIOCESE and Defendant LANE each, at various times during the aforesaid sexual abuse of Plaintiff CASCIO and for years afterward intentionally and fraudulently hid the existence of the aforesaid acts of sexual abuse, conspired to keep this information from becoming public knowledge, and protected the offending Defendant Lane and other priests from criminal prosecution.

35. By virtue of said conspiracy, Defendant ARCHDIOCESE and Defendant LANE are jointly and severally liable to the Plaintiff for the injuries which he has suffered because of the acts of Defendant Lane , who was able thereby to commit, and to continue to commit, sexual abuses and assaults upon Plaintiff CASCIO.

As a direct, legal and proximate result of each of the causes of action hereinabove alleged the Plaintiff has suffered emotional, physical, psychological and emotional harm which have developed and occurred and will in the future continue to develop and occur.

WHEREFORE, The Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants on each of the Counts stated, in an amount which is fair, just and adequate for the injuries and damages sustained, and the pain and suffering endured, plus interest and costs.\
